About the Gunnison Area

Gunnison Colorado is located in the heart of the Rocky Mountains, 30 miles South of Crested Butte ski resort and 45 miles West of the Continental Divide.

Western State College is the major employer in Gunnison County, as are The City and County of Gunnison and the winter and summer recreational industries.

Gunnison offers outdoor recreational opportunities from water sports, winter sports, hunting and fishing, biking, climbing and wilderness opportunities galore.

Approximately 85% of Gunnison County is publicly owned, and the outdoor opportunities are unlimited.

Gunnison has thriving arts and recreation opportunities, through Western State College, The Gunnison Arts Center and the City Recreation programs.

The Gunnison Police Department exists to maintain a high quality of life through prevention of crime, fair and equal treatment of all, and education in partnership with the citizens of Gunnison.

Prevention * Education Partnership

Can you picture yourself here?

A career with The Gunnison Police Department offers excellent advancement and training opportunities. The advantages of working with the Gunnison Police Department include the chance to work as a member of a team with a highly trained group of law enforcement professionals, and to grow professionally.

After completing the probationary period, you'll have the opportunity to work in many aspects of law enforcement, something that is unique to smaller departments.

Officers with the Gunnison Police Department can take on challenges that go beyond regular patrol duties. They include investigations, bike patrol, problem-oriented policing, special response team, collateral assignments, and advancement opportunities.
